the first four books in the david joseph mysteries series by terence newnes now available in one volume the david joseph chronicle in tamil nadu india psychologist david joseph partners with the police to crack unresolved cases and faces a cold blooded murderer the psychologist and the psychopath david joseph is drawn into a deadly game when a vengeful psychopath targets him as the next victim as the body count rises he teams up with his brother in law inspector raj kumar to stop the elusive killer season of the vigilante in the third book in the series david is investigating a series of cases eerily similar in their brutality and injustice an underground alliance emerges seeking vigilante justice but do their motives go beyond revenge an insane mind when the water supply of three residential areas is poisoned leaving countless dead psychologist david joseph suspects an individual seeking revenge against a world that ignored him david joins forces with law enforcement in a race against time to stop the killer but can they catch the perpetrator before another life is lost the book raises issues of social and scientific backgrounds using the tools of simple language and ends with a lot of food for thought the reader can empathize with the characters in the stories and the protagonist always has a social message however the theme of each story has to be unraveled by the reader the book rakes up the eternal conundrum of the human mind in different intriguing ways the presentation handles different themes ranging from soft romance to scientific cloning with smatterings of comedy and the paradox of feminism and the marriage of mind and matter seem to be the most important feature set mostly in indian backgrounds the stories seem to laugh at the irony of situations and readers will see themselves at different phases of their lives hopefully to laugh at a difficult situation and try to find the other side is the bottom line of the book and the title cest la vie simply justifies this the author has a penchant for the unpredictable which adds freshness to the presentation so read on and just let it be the proceeds from this book will go to the campaign against cancer through the rohit memorial trust visit rohitmemorialtrust.com
